

CITY ITEMS.

ANTHONY L. ALDERMAN, one of our oldest and most respectable merchants died a day or two since Saturday. He filled the office of Alderman for many years and other important stations.

Our Thermometer marked 94° in the shade at 5 P.M. yesterday.

BOARD OF ASSISTANT ALDERMEN.—A quorum of 10 members last evening, the President announced that no bond stood adjourned. There will be a special meeting this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—This Board met last evening when the Grand Jury lists were presented, of one or two small bills handed in and referred, after which the Board adjourned.

CHIN MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY.—69 Wall-st.—We learn that the Board of Trustees, at their late and monthly meeting, unanimously resolved to apply to the Legislature at its next session, to increase their capital stock to $300,000 dollars.

ESCAPE OF A FEMALE CONVICT.—A colored woman named Elizabeth Head, who was recently convicted of grand larceny, and sent to the State Prison, effected her escape on the night of the 17th instant, by getting on top of the building in which she was confined, and then letting herself down to the ground by means of blankets torn into strips and tied together.

THE COLUMBIAN MAGAZINE for August is the best number we have seen of this excellent and popular monthly. It contains contributions from some of the best writers in the country; among whom are Lucy Foster, Mrs. Sigourney, Mrs. Osgood, Mrs. C. E. Butler, Mrs. M. G. Sleeper, Miss E. A. Duyck, Basil Gould, and others of note. It is embellished with fine engravings, "Christ arguing with the Doctors," and "Lake Winnepeogee," and a Fashion plate, Ornament & Basket, 116 Fulton st.

TRADE.—Perhaps it might more properly belong to this section, but does not travel? Who, however, should be apprised that the Messrs. Bell of Broadway, have excellent traveling trucks made of solid sole-leather, and supported with steel springs, so that they always retain their shape; they are light and strong, and well adapted for carrying goods. The charges are about the same as for long journeys, as no lightness prevents any extra charge for baggage being demanded.

INQUIRIES.—Coroner Walter's was yesterday armed by officer Freeman of the Ninth Ward, charged with stealing a gold loquini watch worth $30, from the jewel drawer of Anna Eliza Creiger, 12 Sixth avenue, which place it was recovered. He was committed by Justice Merritt for trial.
